

HERE AND THERE.

Guests at Yates' big Pumpkin.

Yates and Yates' big Pumpkin. The guest list for the $1.00 spectacle on earth at Yates' is as follows:

Mr. P. C. Richardson is just up from a severe attack of rheumatism. 25 Year guarantee to anyone at Yates'.

There was very little drunkenness in the city during Christmas.

The handsome line of jewelry ever seen in Hopkinsville at Yates'.

Quarles & Keatts, the Cadiz jewelers. Diamonds, watches and jewelry.

That silver chest at Yates' is the finest thing of the kind ever seen in this city.

Dr. A. P. Campbell, dentist. Medical building, up stairs. Operating a specialty.

Many new leaves turned out for the first of the year will become old ones in the next month is passed.

Henry Robinson, a Mayville negro, is turning white. There is a similar case in Princeton also.

City taxes for 1892 have been due since last fall and must be paid. Call at Yates and see how.

J. G. Beckman Collector.

Yates will give away the handsome case of silver ever seen in the city to the party who guesses the correct number of seeds in his pumpkin.

It took 1,000 pounds of turkey, 1,000 geese and 1,000 ducks to get ready at the Franklin penitentiary on Christmas day.

Mr. J. M. Starling qualified yesterday as Circuit Court Clerk. Mr. C. M. H. will remain in the office as deputy clerk for some months.

The new circuit judges, Commonwealth attorneys, Circuit Clerks and Sheriffs all over the State went into office yesterday.

It would seem that rabbits are plentiful around Paducah, Ky. this season. One man from that place has sold $5,000 in Louisville already, and the season is by no means over.

Prof. C. H. Parnes, formerly of this county, will teach a subscription school at Morton's Gap, commencing Jan. 16. He will be assisted by Miss Lila Clark of Oxford.

Paducah seems to be overrun with tramps. They have become very insolent and trouble is feared. They are already registered with several police.

Dr. Cole, who is thoroughly equipped to treat all diseases of the throat, nose and ears, will be in town, Ky. and day after day. On the night of the 26th the Christmas people of the place had a Christmas tree at their church. Sam Hutchinson and his wife had some misunderstanding and engaged in a war of words. After the he had been passed around Hutchinson drew a pistol and fired. The ball took effect in his wife's right temple and it is more than likely that the wound will prove fatal. They had not been getting along pleasantly for some months and had been living apart some of the time. Hutchinson is an I. A. N. section land. He has been jailed.

Sam Jones Meeting Next Sunday.

The local holiday will cover this event for Sunday Jan. 1st. On Saturday Jan. 7 we will make a return of one for the round trip from Princeton and intermediate points, tickets to be sold for train starting 7:30 p. m. Jan. 7 and 8:40 a. m. CREAM OF NEWS.

A May After Home.

Charles Johnson, who bravely murdered policeman Cox at Lamasco on the night of Christmas eve while resisting arrest for disturbing a public gathering, has made his escape to the woods and an angry mob of citizens is scouring the country for him. The feeling is very strong against Johnson, and if caught he will likely be handled by Judge Lynch.

Another Gracious Feud.

Thursday afternoon Nathan and Milton McReynolds, both colored, and good friends, decided that they could find no other amusement than to engage in a fight. They shot at each other with "just for fun." They drew their guns and shot a shot each, and then both ran. Neither one was hurt. Nathan's overcoat had a hole out in the side. No arrests.

Reinforced Saturday.

The old city went out with a heavy rain that lasted 24 hours. It caused a sudden rise in the river Saturday night and the electric light works were inundated Sunday morning. This made it impossible to run the street lamps and the Jones Monday night was in almost total darkness, save here and there an oil lamp. The trouble was expected to be remedied by last night.

House Burned.

One day last week Mr. C. A. McReynolds, of Joliet, and his wife were in his home to burn it ready for a new building. They left the premises and a short while when the flames reached the roof and caught the entire building, badly damaging Mr. McReynolds' furniture. Fortunately the flames in time to use what water was available, thus averting considerable loss.

City Judge's Report.

Following is Judge Brown's report of the 28 months of his administration:

Criminal appearance to Dec. 31, 1892. 1,100. Amount of costs paid into the city treasury $2,500.00.

Number sent to work houses $2,500.00. Amount of fines worked out $4,000.00. Fines not collected $1,000.00.

Number of days court was held 740. Total amount of fines assessed $8,750.00.

The above is quite a creditable showing and proves conclusively that the City of Justice has not been a failure, nor was from almost perpetual success.

Shot His Wife in the Temple.

The little village of Hanson in Hopkins county, furnishes its Christmas casualty, a result of mean jealousy and big love of the place. On the night of the 26th the Christmas people of the place had a Christmas tree at their church. Sam Hutchinson and his wife had some misunderstanding and engaged in a war of words. After the he had been passed around Hutchinson drew a pistol and fired. The ball took effect in his wife's right temple and it is more than likely that the wound will prove fatal. They had not been getting along pleasantly for some months and had been living apart some of the time. Hutchinson is an I. A. N. section land. He has been jailed.

"MOTHERS' FRIEND"

Chamberlain & Co. make the public that they are manufacturers of the most powerful medicine for cough, cold, and croup. It will loosen and relieve a croup in less than five minutes. It is a medicine that has won fame and popularity in its native land and it is the only known remedy that will prevent croup. It will be put in 25 cent, 50 cent and $1 bottles. For sale by Blackmore & Wood.

BERKSHIRE HOGS

Travellers may have a lesson from Mr. C. C. Case, a prominent attorney of Parker, Dakota, who says: "I never have home without taking a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough, Croup and Diarrhoea Remedy with me, and on many occasions have run with the wind in the snow and have never known it to fail." For sale by Blackmore & Wood.
